1. A civilian air-raid protection plan (CPC) is being organized in Cheb (N51/P37) by the Town Action Committee in cooperation with Trade Unions and Communist Party groups at plants and at the railroad station. The army has been put in charge of the training. No training with gas masks has so far been carried out.¹
2. An infantry unit is stationed in the old barracks in the town. The new barracks, built by Germans during World War II and located south of the railroad track leading to Schirnding, are occupied by a unit whose members wear black epaulets. The cloister "U sv. Krize" houses a PS headquarters and PS troops.
